Duver Dash - Sunday 26th May

What a fabulous turn-out for our inaugural event - 60 adults for a picturesque but challenging 5k distance, and 53 in the Junior under 16s (incl four 5 year olds, who were all phenomenal!) running either 1 or 2k on St Helens Duver.

Huge thanks to everyone who took part in the event, and to our volunteer Marshals - a full report can be found on the website. Our grateful thanks also to the National Trust, to Parkdean Resorts - owners of Nodes Point Holiday Park, and to Aria Resorts - owners of Priory Bay Hotel, for facilitating the 5k course.

We raised £450 for our nominated charity, the Sophie Rolf Trust - KissyPuppy, through entry fees, donations and sales of Bembridge Harbour Fudge - many thanks to all!

Next event: Rock the Boat - Saturday 22nd June

Port Marine Safety Code (PMSC)

The Harbour underwent its annual external PMSC audit in April, covering all aspects of our safety management and operations. We are delighted to have once again been awarded a full compliance certificate.

We'd like to take this opportunity to remind all boat owners to please exercise caution at all times whilst in the Harbour, maintaining a slow speed and minimum wash, and would draw attention to Local Notice to Mariners numbers 1/2019 and 2/2019 which remain in force throughout the year (available on the Harbour website).

Many thanks and good luck Cameron!!

Our Senior Berthing Master, Cameron Hudson, is heading shortly to America, having been a stalwart member of the Team for over 3 years. He'll be very much missed, but we of course wish him all the best on his adventures ...

This year's Isle of Wight Literary Festival, sponsored by Red Funnel, runs from 10th to 13th October. Speakers are now being announced and include Alexander McCall Smith, Michael Morpurgo OBE, Louise Doughty and Dr Tristram Hunt, Director of the V&A Museum.
